

Notification

1. This is for information of all concerned that Written Test for the recruitment of 36 no. of Scientific Assistants in the Directorate of Forensic Science, Assam, Kahilipara, Guwahati – 19 and its RFSLs as per the Advertisement No. Janasanyog/D/10106/23 and Janasanyog/D/10109/23/8-Sept Dated 08/09/2023 published in two daily newspapers namely 'Assam Tribune' and 'Axomiya Pratidin' will consist of two parts:

- First part will be of compulsory subjects (namely General Knowledge, General English and Forensic Science) consisting of 30 marks and has to be attempted by all candidates
- The second part will be of specialised 7 subjects (Anthropology(Physical)/Botany/Biotechnology/Zoology/Chemistry/Physics/Electronics and Instrumentation) and will consist of 40 marks. The candidates specialising in these respective subjects will have to answer questions from the subject of specialisation in accordance with the subjects applied in the online form. Change in this respect will not be allowed.

Note –Syllabus for each subject of the written test will be equivalent to BSc. (Hons./Major).

2. The ratio of vacancies to qualify candidates in 1:5 will be called for skill test/viva-voce
3. Candidates may download the Admit Card of the written test in the “Niyukti portal” after declaration of the exam date. Therefore, candidates are advised to check “Niyukti portal” regularly.

Sd/-
Director (i/c)
Directorate of Forensic Science, Assam,
Kahilipara, Guwahati-781019